North Sargent Class of '63 Scholarship

Background:

The North Sargent High School Class of '63 Scholarship Fund was established in 2000 by members of the graduating class of '63 to honor the school which gave them their solid foundation for life.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Graduating seniors from North Sargent High School who need financial help to attend a technical or trade school (such as a computer, mechanic, beauty, business or science school) may apply for the scholarship.
- The primary criteria are financial need and a sincere desire by the graduating senior to further his/her training and skills.
- Application must indicate the post-secondary institution which the student plans to attend and what field of study will be pursued.
