

Dawn Marie Stoik Memorial Athletic Scholarship

Background:

The fund was established in 1996 by LaVonne Stoik and Gregory Stoik in loving memory of their daughter Dawn Marie Stoik who lost her life in a motorcycle accident on Memorial Day of 1995 just days after graduating from high school. Dawn was active in many sports including gymnastics, track, cheerleading, drill team, basketball and softball. She enjoyed drama, Girl Scouts, Future Business Leaders of America and her job as a lifeguard at the local pool. She had planned to study law at the University of North Dakota. Dawn was highly motivated, energetic, had good morals and high standards. She had many dreams and set her goals high. Dawn delighted in making others happy and joyously gave of herself. Please include a current school picture with the application.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Preference will be given to female students who participate in athletics, are active in their community and have at least a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.00=A scale.
- The scholarship must be used for tuition.
- The award will be made in the fall of each year.
- The Stoik Family will review the applications and recommend recipients for the award.
