Paul Daniel Hougen Memorial Athletic Scholarship Fund

Fund Background: Established in 2020 by Paul's loving wife, Stephanie Hougen

Paul Daniel Hougen was born in 1963, the 6th of 7 children to James and Vella Hougen. Along with his siblings he was raised and educated in Larimore and lived and loved his life here.

Paul excelled in sports; Basketball, Baseball, Softball and golf.

He married Stephanie and raised his children, Emma and Sarah, here in Larimore. He left us way too early at the age of 47 after a short battle with lung cancer. Both his girls were in LHS when he died and so it's fitting that this scholarship goes to a female student at LHS to help them move on to that next stage in life in further education.

This scholarship is to recognize a young woman who embodies a love of sports, and participates with enthusiasm and sportsmanship. For Paul, winning wasn't the main goal. Playing his best, being a team player and most importantly having fun was the goal.

Eligibility Requirements:

- -Eligible students must be a graduating senior, female athlete involved in one or more sports at Larimore High School. Preference will be given to students who exhibit the following characteristics:
- -Teamwork in competition and in the classroom Good sportsmanship Self-motivation- Respect for others
- Honesty Dependability
