North Dakota Community Foundation to Host ND Picnic in AZ

Bismarck, North Dakota . . . The North Dakota Community Foundation (NDCF) will be hosting the 52nd annual North Dakota Picnic at Red Mountain Park in Mesa, Arizona on Sunday, March 3, 2019. The event is a gathering of anyone with North Dakota ties living either permanently or part-time in Arizona. Last year's picnic drew an estimated 2,000 people.

“We are excited to continue this great tradition of bringing North Dakotans together to reconnect with old friends and neighbors,” said Kevin Dvorak, President and CEO of NDCF.

The event will be held from 10 am to 2:30 pm on Sunday, March 3 at Red Mountain Park, 7745 E. Brown Road in Mesa. It will feature oldies music by the band Spotlight, classic cars on display, and a variety of food trucks and vendor booths. The cost to attend the picnic is $5 per person and people can pay online in advance at www.NDCF.net/Picnic or at the Registration Table on the day of the event.

Although there is seating available at the park, attendees are encouraged to bring their own lawn chairs. For more information, visit www.NDCF.net/Picnic, www.facebook.com/ndpicnic, or contact Christi Stonecipher at (701) 222-8349 or christi@NDCF.net.

Established in 1976, the North Dakota Community Foundation is a public, non-profit tax-exempt corporation which receives and distributes charitable funds to support a wide range of programs which benefit North Dakotans. NDCF currently manages over 700 charitable funds for various North Dakota communities and donors, including 65 community foundations and over 100 scholarship funds.
